Naturespirit Herbs LLC is our family business, started in 1990 and located in the Siskiyou Mountains of southwestern Oregon. We are harvesters of edible and medicinal wild seaweeds, herbs, and fungi. We are also health care practitioners that understand the therapeutic uses of our products. We offer a complete line of wild-harvested sea vegetables, seaweed powders, seaweed capsules, wildcrafted herbs, medicinal mushrooms, and herbal extract formulas. We harvest everything in a respectful, ecologically sound way, and strive to provide the highest possible quality.

Harvesting and producing top quality seaweeds

We harvest our seaweeds from the wild and rugged Northern California coast. The clean waters and ideal growing conditions support some of the most luxuriously abundant seaweed beds in the world. We are ecologically responsible harvesters; each plant is harvested by hand, in a way that allows it to continue to grow and reproduce. We return to the same beautiful seaweed "gardens" year after year, and have never observed negative impacts from our harvesting. After harvesting, we rapidly air-dry our seaweeds at low temperatures, which preserves maximum flavor, nutrition and bioactivity.

Seaweeds and health

Seaweeds (also known as sea vegetables, kelps or marine algae) are among the most nutritionally and therapeutically valuable foods on earth. They are concentrated sources of essential minerals, trace elements (including iodine and selenium), therapeutic sulfated polysaccharides (algins, fucoidans, laminarans, carrageenans, agars, porphyrans etc.), vitamins, carotenoids, chlorophylls, polyphenols and antioxidants.

How much is good to eat? 3 to 5 grams of dried seaweed per day is a good average amount for nutritional and therapeutic purposes (that's about 2.5 to 4 pounds per person per year). This amount is based on the average Japanese diet. The Japanese people's remarkable health and longevity may be partly due to the fact that they eat more seaweed per capita than any other culture in the world. Eating a small amount with each meal every day provides the greatest therapeutic health benefits. Additional seaweed, health, and thyroid information can be found at our website.

Whole Sea Vegetables

Our sea vegetables are delicious and nutritious wild foods. They come in a wide variety of colors, textures and flavors. Kelp Fronds and Sea Palm can be eaten right out of the bag as delicious salty snacks, like potato chips or jerky. Nori makes a great snack when it is toasted until crisp. Wakame and Kombu are best when cooked. All sea vegetables can be cooked and served alone, used in a wide variety of tasty recipes, or simmered in water to make a savory broth. They will retain their quality for two to three years if kept in airtight containers in a dark place. Although we strive to produce perfectly clean sea vegetables, please inspect for small crustaceans or shellfish before eating.

	2 oz	1/2 lb	Bulk
Kelp Fronds (Nereocystis luetkeana)	$15.50	44.00	76.00/lb
These delicate, crispy Bull Kelp Fronds are ready to eat as a salty snack. They can also be crumbled and sprinkled on salads, cooked vegetables, rice, popcorn, etc. Of all the seaweeds, Kelp Fronds are the highest in minerals and electrolytes, especially potassium and magnesium. They are also an excellent source of trace elements (including iodine and selenium) and sulfated polysaccharides. Kelp Fronds will quickly calm the energy of a child that has eaten too much sugar! Bull Kelp is a Brown seaweed species.
Sea Palm (Postelsia palmaeformis)	$14.50	40.00	68.00/lb
Sea Palm Fronds are slender, crispy, and ready to eat as a jerky-like snack. Kids love to nibble on Sea Palm, and it helps calm their energy if they have had too much sugar. Sea Palm cooks tender in about 30 minutes. It is remarkably noodle-like in texture, and is excellent in pasta dishes, stir-fries, and salads. Sea Palm is a Brown seaweed species, and is a good source of minerals, trace elements, and sulfated polysaccharides.
Nori (Pyropia spp.)	$15.50	44.00	76.00/lb
Nori (also known as Laver) has a deep, rich, umami seafood taste, and makes a delicious snack when toasted until crisp. Toasted and crumbled Nori adds lots of flavor to breads, soups, and sauces, and makes a savory sprinkle on salads, cooked vegetables, rice, and popcorn. This is whole leaf Nori; it has not been processed into sheets for making sushi. Nori is a Red seaweed species, and is a great source of protein, carotenoids, vitamins, selenium, and sulfated polysaccharides.
Wakame (Alaria marginata)	$14.50	40.00	68.00/lb
Wakame has a very mild flavor, and is one of our favorite sea vegetables for cooking with rice or vegetable dishes. It is also very good when simmered until tender (about 30 minutes), drained, and used in pasta or marinated dishes, salads, etc. Use the broth too! Wakame is a Brown seaweed species, and is a great source of calcium, potassium, selenium, and sulfated polysaccharides.
Kombu (Laminaria setchellii)	$13.25	35.00	58.00/lb
Kombu is a hearty and nutritious sea vegetable that adds lots of flavor and body to soups, broths and bean dishes. It takes 60 to 90 minutes to cook tender, so it holds together well in dishes that require long cooking times. Kombu is a Brown seaweed species, and is a rich source of minerals, iodine and other trace elements, and sulfated polysaccharides.

"Naturespirit Herbs has been a major contributor to building and sustaining the bulk sea vegetable section at People's Food Coop in Portland, Oregon. The success of this section is due to their conscientious harvesting and the consistent quality of their sea vegetables."

Seaweed Powders

Seaweed powders are a great way to add seaweeds to your daily diet. We keep a shaker bottle at our dinner table and use it as a salty condiment. Seaweed powders can also be added to smoothies or baked goods, used to thicken soups and sauces, or simply mixed into a cup of water or juice. Bladderwrack Powder is our favorite seaweed powder for therapeutic seaweed baths, facial masks and body wraps. Seaweed powders will retain their quality for two to three years if kept in airtight containers in a dark place. Seaweeds are natural products of the ocean, and may contain trace amounts of crustaceans or shellfish.

2 oz 1/2 lb Bulk

Six Mix Seaweed Powder (Six seaweed species) $16.25 47.00 82.00/lb

A blend of six different Brown and Red seaweed species, providing broad-spectrum nutrition and health benefits. It is the same seaweed mix used in our Sea Vegetable Blend Capsules (see page 4). Six Mix Seaweed Powder has a mild flavor, and may be sprinkled on food, added to smoothies, or simply mixed into a cup of water or juice. Contains Kombu (Laminaria setchellii), Wakame (Alaria marginata), Kelp Fronds (Nereocystis luetkeana), Sea Fern (Cystoseira osmundacea), Gigartina (Gigartina papillata) and Iridea (Iridea cordata). One level teaspoonful weighs about 4.5 grams.

Kombu-Wakame Powder (Two seaweed species) $13.75 37.00 62.00/lb

Once you try this, you'll never go back to commercial kelp powders! Our Kombu-Wakame Powder has a clean, fresh taste. Ready to use as a flavorful, salty seasoning on cooked vegetables, rice or popcorn, as an ingredient in breads and smoothies, for thickening soups and sauces, or simply mixed into a cup of water or juice. Kombu-Wakame Powder is a good source of iodine, selenium, calcium, potassium, and sulfated polysaccharides. One level teaspoonful weighs about 4 grams.

Kelp Frond Powder (Nereocystis luetkeana) $15.50 44.00 76.00/lb

Kelp Frond Powder is a naturally salty and savory condiment, ready to sprinkle on soups, salads, cooked vegetables, rice, popcorn etc. Of all the seaweeds, Bull Kelp Fronds are the highest in minerals and electrolytes, especially potassium and magnesium. They contain about three times as much potassium salt as sodium salt, an ideal balance of electrolytes. Kelp Frond powder is also an excellent source of trace elements (including iodine and selenium) and sulfated polysaccharides. Bull Kelp is a Brown seaweed species. One level teaspoonful weighs about 3.5 grams.

Gigartina Powder (Gigartina papillata) $16.25 47.00 82.00/lb

This is the same species of seaweed used in our Red Marine Algae Capsules (see page 4). Like its close relative Irish Moss (Chondrus crispus), Gigartina contains sulfated polysaccharides (carrageenans) known for their tonic effects on the immune system, lungs, and digestive tract. Gigartina Powder has a pleasant, Dulse-like flavor, and may be sprinkled on food, added to smoothies, or simply mixed into a cup of water or juice. One level teaspoonful weighs about 4 grams.

Bladderwrack Powder (Fucus gardneri) $13.75 37.00 62.00/lb

Bladderwrack is a Brown seaweed species that has been used for centuries in Europe to support healthy thyroid function (also see Thyroid Support Formula on page 7). It is a very good source of trace elements (including iodine and selenium) and sulfated polysaccharides. Bladderwrack Powder has a very strong taste, and is best used as an ingredient in smoothies or mixed into a cup of water or juice. Bladderwrack Powder is our favorite seaweed powder for therapeutic seaweed baths, facial masks and body wraps (instructions provided at our website). One level teaspoonful weighs about 3 grams.

Sargassum, Cystoseira, Iridea, Dilsea, etc. - Please inquire about availability and pricing.

Seaweed Capsules

(10% discount on orders of 12 bottles or more)

Each bottle of our vegetarian capsules contains 60 grams of pure food grade dried seaweed (compare this with other brands). We sustainably hand harvest our seaweeds from the wild and rugged Northern California coast. After harvesting, we rapidly air-dry our seaweeds at low temperatures, which preserves maximum flavor, nutrition and bioactivity. You will not find higher quality seaweed capsules anywhere, at any price.

Our capsules contain no GMOs, corn, soy, yeast, wheat, gluten, milk or egg products, sugar, starch, additives or preservatives. Seaweeds are natural products of the ocean, and may contain trace amounts of crustaceans or shellfish. Seaweeds are among the most nutritionally and therapeutically valuable foods on earth. Detailed information about seaweeds, health, and thyroid function can be found at our website.

Sea Vegetable Blend Capsules (Six different seaweed species)

(600 mg. per capsule, 100 capsules per bottle)

$30.00 per bottle

A blend of six different Brown and Red seaweed species, providing broad-spectrum nutrition and promoting healthy thyroid, cardiovascular, digestive, and immune system function. Seaweeds are concentrated sources of essential minerals, trace elements (including iodine and selenium), sulfated polysaccharides, vitamins, carotenoids, chlorophylls, polyphenols and antioxidants. Ingredients: Kombu (Laminaria setchellii), Wakame (Alaria marginata), Kelp Fronds (Nereocystis luetkeana), Sea Fern (Cystoseira osmundacea), Gigartina (Gigartina papillata) and Iridea (Iridea cordata). Suggested use is two capsules daily, with meals, or as directed by your health care practitioner.

Red Marine Algae Capsules (Gigartina papillata)

(600 mg. per capsule, 100 capsules per bottle)

$30.00 per bottle

Gigartina papillata is a species of Red marine algae (seaweed). Like its Atlantic relative Irish Moss (Chondrus crispus), Gigartina contains sulfated polysaccharides (carrageenans) known for their tonic effects on the immune system, lungs, and digestive tract. Gigartina is also an abundant source of essential minerals, trace elements, vitamins, carotenoids, chlorophylls, polyphenols and antioxidants. Suggested use is two capsules daily, with meals, or as directed by your health care practitioner.

Wild Medicinal Mushroom Mix

Finely cut and ready for making teas and broths

2 oz = $28.00

1/2 lb = $94.00

1 lb = $176.00

Medicinal mushrooms are revered as health and longevity tonics in many cultures. This unique product is a blend of five different species of wild-harvested medicinal Polypore fungi, which we have sustainably harvested from healthy Pacific Northwest forests, carefully dried, and finely shredded. We selected these five species for their mild, pleasant flavor and broad-spectrum health benefits (immune-enhancing, immune-modulating, anti-inflammatory, antioxidant etc.). Most effective with long-term use. Wild medicinal mushrooms are usually much higher in bioactive compounds than cultivated mycelium products. Check out our website for more info.

Ingredients: Artist's Conk (Ganoderma applanatum), Oregon Reishi (Ganoderma oregonense), Turkey Tail (Trametes versicolor), Willow Conk (Phellinus igniarius) and Indian Paint Fungus (Echinodontium tinctorium).

Suggested use: Put a heaping tablespoonful (3-4 grams) in a pot with a quart of boiling water. Cover the pot and barely simmer for at least 2 hours. Alternatively, you can put it in a thermos with boiling water for at least 2 hours. If desired, add other herbs for additional flavor. Strain and serve (or use as a soup base).

Wildcrafted Herbs and Single Herb Extracts (tinctures)

We harvest more than 60 different species of medicinal wild plants, seaweeds, and fungi. We also produce over 100 different single herb extracts (tinctures). Our Wildcrafted Herbs Catalog and a list of our single herb extracts are available at our website.

Herbal Extract Formulas

Our herbal extract formulas are unique, and represent our knowledge and expertise as herbalists. Each formula includes a brief description of its specific health applications and ingredients. The full herbal extract formula descriptions (with additional health info) are available at our website.
